August 2011

Our Real Estate Market

The Snapshot:

- The total number of homes sold in all categories (attached, detached, apartment) in Greater Vancouver this July was higher than July 2010 (2,571, up from 2,255).
- The total number of homes sold year-to-date in 2011 was higher than last year (by 10.3%).
- North Shore sales are also higher this July (up 19%) and Y-T-D (up 16%) than in 2010.
- The total number of MLS® listings is trending up, but is still 7.3% lower than at end July last year.
- Prices are trending up – with some areas experiencing larger gains than others.
- The US debt problem is expected to hold interest rates low for the next year or two.

The Outlook:

- Confidence in our housing market has led to a nice balance of supply & demand for a few months now and I expect that to continue for the foreseeable future.

The Next Step:

- For more details on the market in your neighbourhood, call me anytime for a no-obligation Market Activity Report.
- If you are considering a move in the next year, call me for a Market Evaluation of your home.
